

1894-071 Chancery Causes: A. L. Pridemore vs. James Edwards
Lee Co.

CA-Debt
T-Property

To The Honorable John A. Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia

Your orator A. L. Pridemore humbly Complaining sheweth unto Your Honor that Your orator heretofore obtained a Judgement in this Honorable Court against one James Edwards for the sum of $70 and legal interest thereon from the 7th day of October 1870. Subject to a credit of $20. paid as of Dec. 1st 1882, and $8.14 Cash. Upon this Judgement execution issued and was placed in the hands of S. H. Ewing for Collection, made returnable to the December rule 1884, and was by him returned "no property found" A copy of which said find and return will be found beneath file marked "A" as part hereof.
This Judgement has also been duly docketed and indexed so as to constitute a lien upon any lands owned by said Edwards, which if found necessary will be shown by a transcript thereof.

This judgement nor any part thereof has been paid but remains wholly due from said Edwards.

Your orator alleges that said Edwards is the owner of a tract of land some 2¹/₂ miles South from Jonesville, near exford's ford on Powell's river adjoining the lands of Thomas S. Eby and others whereon the said Edwards resides - The rents and profits of which will in five years pay your orator's claim & costs.

Upon this land your orator is advised his said judgement is a lien - To enforce which by having said land rented for a sufficient length of time to pay and discharge his said debt is the object of this bill.

The premises considered his prayer therefore is that said James Edwards be made a party defendant to this bill and answer its allegations upon oath and upon a hearing or decree he entered, enforcing his said lien, reviving said land for a time sufficient to pay the same - Sub for all after justice and General relief May supra issue or
